PRESS RELEASE

January 13, 2010

Two Board of Education Terms to Expire

Two Rockford Public Schools board trustees' terms are set to expire on June 30, 2010.

Charles Boekeloo has served as a board trustee since 1998 and has announced that he will retire upon completion of his third term in June. David Keller was first elected to the Board in 2006 and has declared his intent to seek re-election at the May 4, 2010 election.

Individuals interested in seeking election may contact their local city/township clerk or the Kent County Clerk to obtain nominating petitions. The deadline to file petitions with the Kent County Clerk's office is 4 p.m. on February 9, 2010.

For information on how to seek election, you may contact your city or township office, the Kent County Clerk's Office (www.accesskent.com), or the office of the Assistant Superintendent of Finance at the Rockford Public Schools (616-863-6555).

If you have questions or would like information about what is involved with serving on the Board of Education, feel free to contact Superintendent Shibler at 616-863-6557.
